Level 2 Award in Food Safety in Catering

Courses are interesting and packed with vital information in the form of talks, demonstrations and visual aids.

The content covers:

- The importance of time and temperature control, personal hygiene, cleaning and disinfection
- Food safety hazards and how to avoid or control them
- Legislation and much more

The short examination will lead to the nationally recognised Level 2 Award in food safety awarded by the Chartered Institute of Environmental Health.

The course fee is £55 (10% discount for group bookings, minimum of 10 candidates). It is run over two evening sessions and includes a multiple choice examination, handbook and refreshments. Please note that this charge is per candidate and is payable in advance.

The courses are held at The Civic Offices, Borehamwood, however, we are happy to run "in-house" courses for businesses nominating a minimum of 10 candidates. Additionally, we are able to assist with requests for courses in languages other than English. If you would like to discuss this or any other aspect of the course please contact Yvette Statham, tel: 020 8207 7435, email: yvette.statham@hertsmere.gov.uk
