Street trading is selling, or offering for sale, any article in the street. This includes food, such as burgers, kebabs, doughnuts etc. or other things such as household items.

In Hertsmere we do not issue Street Trading Licences however there are a number of streets where trading is not permitted.

You can find out where on our list of prohibited streets.

In other streets we currently permit trading, providing parking restrictions allow it.

Whilst we do not issue Street Trading Licences within Hertsmere you must be a registered food business.

For further information on Registration please visit our dedicated Food Registration page.
