

Relevant offences for Personal Licences

Licensing Act 2003

The offences listed below are specified as relevant offences under the Licensing Act 2003, and any convictions for these offences must be declared:

- By applicants, within an application for grant or renewal of a Personal Licence ('spent' convictions do not need to be disclosed –see below); or
- By licence-holders, as soon as reasonably practicable after conviction or disposal of any appeal.

If charged with a relevant offence, licensees must notify the Court that they hold a Personal Licence, before the end of their first appearance in a magistrate's court in connection with the offence.

Applicants and licence-holders are also required to declare any convictions for equivalent offences committed in any place other than England and Wales –these are known as 'foreign offences'.
