Are your neighbours being exploited by people involved in drug crime?

Gangs exploit vulnerable people and take over their home in order to use it for drug dealing - this is known as cuckooing.

SPOT THE SIGNS

- Increase in number of unfamiliar visitors
- Suspicious smells coming from the property
- Display signs of self-harm, physical assault or unexplained injuries
- Increase in anti-social behaviour around the property
- Evidence of drug use
- Deterioration in emotional wellbeing
- Unexplained acquisition of money, new clothes or mobile phones
- Visitors arriving at unusual times, day and night

If you have any concerns, please contact the Police on 101 (non-emergency) or www.herts.police.uk/report

Report anonymously to Crimestoppers on 0800 555111 or crimestoppers-uk.org

Always call 999 in an emergency
