BH 002	Mary Forsdyke Garden	Park	Park	Local Green Space	0.72	Public	Y	2	4	2	8	2	6	1	2	0	0	1	3	2	10	2	10	0	0	41	Y	Following a review of the threshold score at which a space can be considered as demonstrably special, the site meets the required criteria when assessed against NPPF paragraph 77. The area of open space makes an important contribution to this part of Bushey Heath, both in terms of the function and appearance of the space and the informal recreation opportunities available. As a 'pocket park' containing a range of mature trees and recently introduced lakeside walk, it forms an important part of a planned residential estate. The estate was designated as The Lake, Bushey Heath Conservation Area in 1998, with an Article 4(2) Direction and associated Design Guidance subsequently introduced.
BH 007	The Paddock, Elstree Road	Bushey Heath	Semi natural green space	Local Green Space	0.58	Private	Y	1	2	0	0	2	6	1	2	0	0	0	0	2	10	2	10	0	0	30	Y	Following a review of the threshold score at which a space can be considered as demonstrably special and a reassessment of this site, it meets the required criteria when assessed against NPPF paragraph 77. Following completion of the original assessment, a number of factors have resulted in a change to how the site has been assessed. Firstly, it has been brought to the Council's attention that the site was bequeathed to the local community by its former owner Elia Chewett and very much intended to be left open for grazing and to remained undeveloped. This has been corroborated in correspondence which the Council has received from a former employee and friend of Ms Chewett, along with documentation signed by Ms Chewett. Secondly, the contribution that the space makes to the character and appearance of the area has been clearly recognised in two dismissed appeal decisions relating to recent applications for the development of the site. Thirdly, the site has been identified as forming part of the original heath or common land which made up Bushey Heath, which was enclosed in the early 19th Century by a Parliamentary Act. As such it constitutes one of the final remaining parts of the original Bushey Heath in the locality, an area which has otherwise been significantly developed in the intervening period.
BU 001	Bushey Rose Garden	Park	Park	Local Green Space	0.53	Public	Y	2	4	2	8	2	6	1	2	0	0	1	3	2	10	2	8	1	1	42	Y	Following a review of the threshold score at which a space can be considered as demonstrably special, this site is considered to meet the required criteria when assessed against NPPF paragraph 77. The site itself is a registered Park and Garden of Special Historic Interest (Grade II) and was formerly the site of the well known art school, founded by Hubert von Herkomer, who commissioned the creation of the garden. Following Heritage Lottery funding, restoration of the garden was completed in 2010 and the site remains an important and well utilised area of open space for the local community.
