Request: (As Redacted sent by requestor)

Hi there,
I hope this finds you well. I'm the housing correspondent at The i Paper and I'm looking into the use of shipping containers as emergency accommodation.
Under the Freedom of Information Act, could you please provide me with the following information:
1. How many converted shipping containers (also known as modular homes) are currently being used as homes in your area? This can be broken down by units and sites.
2. Please provide the address of each site
3. How many households in total are currently housed in these facilities?
I'd be very grateful if you could acknowledge receipt of this email
Thanks so much, all the best and do let me know if you have any questions
