- Ask for a receipt – this should say where the waste is going, what the waste is and include details about the vehicle taking it away, as well as the carrier’s authorisation number.

- Avoid paying by cash – carriers who are not legitimate businesses will often ask to be paid in cash.

- Be wary of anyone who offers to ‘do you a favour’ – if it sounds too good to be true, it probably is.

If you don’t, your items could end up dumped, like the examples we’ve compiled in our top ten of flytipping cases:

You can find licensed waste carriers in your neighbourhood, just by calling the Environment Agency on 03708 506 506 or by visiting the Environment Agency website.

If you are a business, find out more about your duty of care as a waste producer and our commercial waste collections.

We offer a bulky waste collection for larger household items. A range of items can also be disposed of for free at our household waste recycling centres.
