

Search this site

Environment ▾

Animal welfare ▾

Stray dogs and other animals ▾

Stray dogs and other animals

Last Modified August 11, 2020

Share this page

We collect and detain stray dogs and other animals.

Hertfordshire Constabulary is not responsible for accepting stray dogs and you should not contact them for this service.

Stray dogs

What should I do if I find a stray dog? ▾

How do I report a stray dog? ▾

What will the council do? ▾

How much are the fees? ▾

How can I find out if you have got my pet? ▾

What does the law say? ▾

Can you keep a dog you find? ▾

Other animals

We are allowed to impound any livestock which has strayed onto our land. Animals are only returned to their owners after payment for any damages and expenses incurred.

Related External Links

Contact us Accessibility Accessibility Statement Jobs Sitemap