Hertsmere Borough Council today (Wednesday 29 April) published a notice confirming that a by election for South Mimms Parish Council has been requested and will take place in 2021.

The delay in holding the Parish Councillor by election is due to the coronavirus outbreak. The by election is scheduled to take place on 6 May 2021.

Only residents who live in South Mimms will be eligible to vote in this by election. To have your say on who gets elected you must be registered to vote.

Details on registering to vote deadlines, how to vote and candidates will be provided nearer the time.

The notice can be found on our Election Notices page.

Remember you can register to vote at any time. For more information and to apply online.
