Electors in the Kenilworth ward of Borehamwood have had their say on who should next represent them.

The results of our by-election have been announced.

The turnout for the election was 23.86 per cent. The results are as follows:

John Humphries – The Green Party - 50 votes

Andy Lewis – Liberal Democrats - 104 votes

Dan Ozarow – The Labour Party - 655 votes

Brett Ashley Rosehill – The Conservative Party – 776 votes

Brett Rosehill has been duly elected as councillor for the Borehamwood Kenilworth ward on Hertsmere Borough Council.

The results were announced by Returning Officer, Managing Director, Sajida Bijle, at the count in the Civic Offices, Elstree Way, Borehamwood this evening (13 February).
