Are you interested in helping out in your local park? If so, there are many ways you can get involved:

Volunteering at Bushey Rose Garden

Are you a budding gardener with green fingers wanting to improve your knowledge of gardening or simply interested in spending a bit of time outdoors? Perhaps you'd like to support our gardener and can spare a couple of hours a week or month to help in the garden? If so, please read our volunteer guidance for more information, then

Countryside Management

The Countryside and Rights of Way Management Service (CRoW) work throughout Hertfordshire to enable local communities to enjoy, care for and enhance their local environment.

Contact them by:

- calling 01992 588433
- email: northeast.cms@hertfordshire.gov.uk
- visit Countryside Management Service Volunteering.

Friends of the Parks

Community involvement is positively encouraged and we already have a number of Friends groups who are vital to our work. New members are always welcome
