The Community Right to Bid is included within the  Localism Act, which aims to devolve power to local communities. The right to bid gives community groups the opportunity to buy community buildings and facilities that are important to them. You can read more about the Community Right to Bid on the  MyCommunityRights website.

Our  Community Right to Bid Policy Statement (PDF 622kb) sets out how this right will be administered locally.

Our  frequently asked questions (PDF 346kb) provide additional guidance.

To nominate an asset to be considered for inclusion in List of Assets of Community Value please complete a  nomination form (DOC 56kb).

Successful nominations will be placed on the  List of Assets of Community Value (PDF 190kb)

Unsuccessful nominations will be placed on the  List of Land Nominated by Unsuccessful Community Nominations (PDF 186kb)

Hard copies of the two lists are available on request.

Current Nominations

Any new nominations will be determined within eight weeks of the date that they are received. The assets will either be added to the List of Assets of Community Value or the List of Land Nominated by Unsuccessful Community Nominations.
