Purpose of this document:

Hertsmere Borough Council Parking Service Team is committed to protecting your privacy when you use our services.

The Privacy Notice below explains how we use information about you and how we protect your privacy.

Important note:

This policy only relates to how we collect, store and use your personal data in the Parking Services Team for the purposes of parking consultations, issuing of parking permits and enforcement of the parking restrictions in relation to the Traffic Management Act 2004 and the Councils On & Off Street Parking Places Orders. For information about the council's general data security policies see the Access to Information page which contains a link to a general Data Protection Policy.
