Privacy Statement

We will only use the information given to us for electoral purposes. We will look after personal information securely and we will follow the Data Protection legislation. We will not give personal information about you, or any personal information you may provide on other people, to anyone else or other organisation unless we have to by law.

The lawful basis to collect the information in this form is that it is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest and exercise of official authority as vested in the Returning Officer as set out in the Representation of the People Act 1983 and associate regulations.

The Returning Officer is the Data Controller. You should refer to the Privacy Notice at www.hertsmere.gov.uk/Your-Council/Democracy-Elections/Electoral-Services-Privacy-Notice, for further information relating to the processing of personal data. The Privacy Notice explains how the Data Controller will use any personal information we collect about you when you use our services. We will use your information for the purposes we have set out; keep it securely; destroy it when we no longer need it; tell you the rights applicable to this personal information and how to exercise them; tell you who to complain to.
